

MEN OF INTEGRITY BREAKFAST

Saturday, January 26th from 8:00 to 10:00 am at Bemus Point United Methodist Church

OUR SPEAKER WILL BE GEORGE LILJA

George Lilja was All-Big Ten and All-America as center for the University of Michigan. In 1981 he was drafted in the 4th round by the L.A. Rams. He later played for the New York Jets before joining the Cleveland Browns. He and his wife, Meg, live in Bay Village, Ohio. George stated in his bio, "I began searching for something, something to make me happy. I asked myself, 'Who am I? What am I doing here?' That's when I began reading some magazine articles about Christian athletes. I had grown up in a Christian home and had gone to church all my life. These athletes and I had the same goals. But they talked about something more that I didn't have, and that was a personal relationship with Jesus Christ."
